Constitutional Law
Fall Semester 2005
Syllabus

The numbers at the left margin are the assignment numbers. Numbers to the right designate page numbers in Sullivan & Gunther; S = casebook supplement; HO = a handout.

I. The Constitution as law

1. The written Constitution
   Text of the Constitution (appendix A), Bobbitt excerpt (HO)

2. Judicial review
   2-12 [read the historical note first]

3. Judicial supremacy?
   21-31

4. The political question doctrine
   32-39, 41-47

II. Federalism as a constraint on state power

5. The Marshall Court vision
   National bank note (HO), 89-99

6. Conflict on the Rehnquist Court
   110-122

7. Federal authority over commerce
   245-253, 266-268, S12-S14

8. Judicial balancing and the dormant commerce clause
   286-287, 295-303, 334-336

III. The scope of federal power

9. The commerce power before the New Deal
   124-141

10. The New Deal vision of the commerce power
    142-153

11. The Rehnquist Court vision of the commerce power (I)
    153-167

12. The Rehnquist Court vision of the commerce power (II)
    170-178

13. The Rehnquist Court vision of the commerce power (III)
    S1-S11

14. State governmental autonomy
    187-204

15. State sovereign immunity
    204-215, Seminole Tribe note (HO)

16. The taxing and spending powers
    216-235

IV. Separation of powers

17. Modern separation of powers doctrine
    OLC opinion (HO), 396-402

18. Executive privilege
    420-435
V. The Constitution of foreign affairs

19. The powers of Congress 236-243, 360-362, Powell excerpt (HO)
20. The Youngstown vision (visions?) 344-354, Jackson opinion note (HO)
21. Presidential authority over foreign affairs Powell excerpt (HO)
22. Presidential authority over war OLC opinion (HO)
23. Detention of enemy combatants 370-383
24. The first amendment and national security 1002-1005, 1361-1370

VI. Constitutional protection of individual liberty

25. The fourteenth amendment privileges or immunities clause 448-459, 462-466
26. The Bill of Rights and the fourteenth amendment 467-483
27. Substantive due process before the New Deal 485-500
28. The New Deal view and Footnote Four 503-513
29. The takings clause: the public use requirement 513-516, S15-S21
30. The takings clause: regulatory takings 516-531
31. Procedural due process 629-639, S22-S23

VII. Modern substantive due process

32. Contraception 544-557
33. Abortion & strict scrutiny 558-567
34. Abortion & the undue burden test 574-591, S22
35. Family relationships 591-600
36. Sexual relationships 600-614
37. Freedom to die? 614-629

VIII. Equal protection and class-based discrimination

38. Rational basis scrutiny 647-664
39. Race 667-685, S24-S25
40. Race and governmental purpose 685-697, 758-763
41. Affirmative (?) action 718-735
42. Sex and heightened scrutiny 770-781, 796-799
43. Sex and governmental justification 781-793, 803-806
44. Other classes 817-832

IX. Discrimination as to fundamental rights

45. The right to vote 837-840, 846-860
46. Access to education 873-884
X. Congressional protection of individual liberty and equality

47. The state action requirement 885-894, 924-926
48. The Warren Court vision 926-935, 952-958
49. The Rehnquist Court vision (I) 962-970
50. The Rehnquist Court vision (II) 970-983

XI. Freedom of the mind

51. Speech and silence 1016-1020, Barnette (HO)
52. Conscience 1553-1560

XII. The ends of the law

53. A Man for All Seasons