The texts are Bonnie, Coughlin, Jeffries & Low, CRIMINAL LAW (2ed. 2004) and THE TRIAL OF JOHN HINKLEY: A STUDY IN THE INSANITY DEFENSE by Bonnie, Jeffries & Low (2nd ed. 2000). The assignments listed below are in CRIMINAL LAW unless otherwise noted. In general, we will cover one assignment per class.

Class will begin at 11:05 and run for 60 minutes, ending at 12:05. The class will meet in smaller breakout groups for two assignments as noted below; these small group sessions will be scheduled for two hour blocks. These small group sessions are spread over two days; each student will attend a small group session on one of these two days, and have no class on the other day.

The class is scheduled to meet five days a week, but 13 classes throughout the semester will be cancelled as indicated on the syllabus below. However, if we lose any class sessions because of snow, we will make up time on one of the starred dates.

By the end of the second week of class, all students should read pages 6-33 for general background.
