

2004 Summer Passport Series

- June 21 Monday The JD/LLM Experience: Getting the Most Out of Law School - and Beyond
Marcella Harshbarger, JD/LLM '02, an associate at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld and Jason Webber, JD/LLM '99, an associate at White and Case, will explain how their dual degrees have facilitated their personal and professional growth. 11:45 a.m. in the Burdman Lounge (Law School Room 3000)
- June 24 Thursday Fighting Performance Enhancing Drugs in Olympic Sports
Meet Senior Associate Dean Jim Coleman, who has represented both the U.S. Track Federation and the U.S. Olympic Committee in doping cases and has also represented track and field athletes and professional football players. He has recently shared his thoughts about this interesting subject in international media outlets, and now he will share his thoughts with you. 11:45 a.m. in the Law School Blue Lounge
- June 29 Tuesday Student-Faculty Wine and Cheese Reception
Learn about our faculty members' current scholarship and how student research assistants play an important role in their work. 4:45 p.m. in the Burdman Lounge
- July 1 Thursday Pool Party and Cook-out
Co-sponsored by the Offices of Career Services and Student Affairs, bring your family and your swimsuits to the Faculty Club for this mid-summer break, featuring food, beverages, and maybe even a game of Marco Polo! 5 p.m. at the Duke University Faculty Club
- July 7 Wednesday Freeing the Innocent
Associate Dean Theresa Newman, advisor to the Duke Innocence Project and President of the NC Center on Actual Innocence, will discuss her important efforts to protect incarcerated individuals claiming actual innocence and will explain how you can get involved during your legal education. 11:45 a.m. in the Blue Lounge
- July 13 Tuesday After Brown: The Rise and Retreat of School Desegregation
Meet Professor Charles Clotfelter, who holds a joint appointment with the Law School and Sanford Institute of Public Policy. Professor Clotfelter will discuss his new book, which provides a comprehensive analysis of school integration issues since the seminal Supreme Court decision of Brown v. Board of Education. Free pizza! 11:45 a.m. in Public Policy Room 04.
- July 16-17 Washington, DC Field Trip
Back by popular demand, this year's excursion to the nation's capital will feature stops at the World Bank, FBI Headquarters, and the Washington Post, where we will meet with prominent Law School alumni and other lawyers practicing in non-traditional legal positions. Cap off the day with a DC-area alumni cocktail reception at the New Zealand Embassy, sponsored by the Office of External Relations. See the attached for further details.
