

The Program in Public Law Presents

Kitzmiller v. Dover Area School District
Trying the Intelligent Design Case

Eric Rothschild, a partner at Pepper Hamilton LLP in Philadelphia and a Duke alumnus, will describe how he used his experience and training as a commercial litigator to represent pro bono the parents who challenged the teaching of intelligent design in the Dover, Pennsylvania public schools.

Thursday, March 30, 12:15 pm
Duke Law School
Room 3041

Open to all.

Pizza will be provided on a first come, first served basis.

Please bring your own beverage.

