

2018-19 Annual Report of the Review Committee of Recent Student Complaints of Discriminatory Behavior
During the Recruiting Process or Summer Employment

Annual Report

This report is issued pursuant to the Law School's "Policy & Procedures for Addressing Student Complaints of Discriminatory Behavior During the Recruiting Process or Summer Employment" (available here). The Policy and Procedures require the Review Committee to prepare and distribute a report at least annually to the community describing recent policy violations that have been reported on a Complaint Form pursuant to this policy, along with measures recommended and/or taken by the Law School and the offending employer.

Incidents Reported During the 2018-19 Academic Year

There were no violations or incidents reported during the 2018-19 academic year pursuant to the Law School's policies.