Table of Contents (chapters and authors)

1. Introduction: Matthew Adler & Marc Fleurbaey

Part I. Methods of Policy Assessment

2. Cost-benefit analysis: Robin Boadway
3. GDP: Paul Schreyer
4. Income-based inequality and poverty measures: Frank Cowell
5. Social welfare functions: John Weymark
6. Fair allocation: William Thomson
7. Fair social orderings: François Maniquet
8. Multidimensional indicators: Satya Chakravarty & Maria Ana Lugo
9. QALY-based cost-effectiveness analysis: Jose Maria Abellan, Carmen Herrero & Jose Luis Pinto

Part II. Conceptions of Well-Being

11. Preference-based views of well-being: Krister Bykvist
12. Hedonic views: Daniel Haybron
13. Objective-list approaches: Thomas Hurka
14. Subjective well-being in psychology: Richard Lucas
15. Subjective well-being in economics: Carol Graham
Part III. Measuring Well-Being: A Debate

16. Equivalent income: Marc Fleuraey
17. Extended preferences: Matthew Adler
18. Happiness: Andrew Clark
19. Capabilities: Sabina Alkire
22. Does fairness require a multidimensional approach? Richard Arneson
23. Inclusive and multidimensional methodologies for measuring well-being: An empirical comparison Koen Decanq & Dirk Neumann

Part IV. Challenges to Well-being Measurement

24. Social choice under risk and uncertainty: Philippe Mongin & Marcus Pivato
25. Individual responsibility: Francisco Ferreira & Vito Peragine
26. Heterogeneous prices, consumption, and preferences: Prasada Rao
27. Households: Pierre-Andre Chiappori
28. Behavioral incoherence Eldar Shafir
29. Lifetime well-being Gregory Ponthiere
30. Future generations John Broome

Author List and emails

Jose Maria Abellan dionisos@um.es
Matthew Adler adler@law.duke.edu
Sabina Alkire sabina.alkire@qeh.ox.ac.uk
Richard Arneson rarneson@ucsd.edu