

PROCESS FOR TAKING A CLASS AT FUQUA:

1. When available, review available course list posted on the Duke Law website and complete and sign the Fuqua grad/prof registration request form. The form can be printed from the Duke Law website or picked up in the Law School Registrar's Office.
2. Obtain Fuqua faculty approval via e-mail or signature.
3. Obtain permission from James Lambert (JD Students), Dean Laccoff (Dual-degree students), or Dean Kobelev (LLMs).
4. Submit completed, signed grad/prof registration request form to Law School Registrar (Room 2027) by TBD (we will update when we have information from Fuqua).
5. Fuqua will process (approved/not approved) by TBD (we will update when we have information from Fuqua), and notify departments as well as students. Students tentatively accepted for a Term 2 class should have a back-up plan should the course fill by the end of October.

If you are accepted into a Fuqua class, you will be placed on the waitlist until Fuqua's drop/add ends. You cannot enroll yourself in the class.
