Dear Student:

The Delaware Minority Job Fair Committee of the Delaware State Bar Association encourages you to apply for an invitation to participate in the 2014 Delaware Minority Job Fair for Second- and Third-Year Law Students, which will be held at the Wilmington, Delaware campus of Widener University School of Law on Saturday, August 9, 2014. The Job Fair was founded by a consortium of Delaware law firm, corporate, and public sector/interest legal employers interested in promoting diversity and inclusion in the Delaware bar. This year's Job Fair includes employers from both the private and public sectors.

The Job Fair, an invitation-only event, is limited to students interested in summer or full-time employment opportunities in Delaware who will be in their second or third year of law school (or their LED equivalents) during the 2014-15 academic year. While minority law students are the focus of this event, the Job Fair accepts applications from all interested students.

The Job Fair begins each year with a networking breakfast, continues with brief remarks about Delaware’s legal community and practice, and concludes after a half-day of interviews. Interviewing employers, Job Fair sponsors, and distinguished members of the Delaware bench and bar attend the networking breakfast to mingle and share information with the invited students.

Students pre-selected by two or more employers will receive an invitation to attend the Job Fair by early July and be asked to accept or decline their interview invitations by mid-July. Invited students must make their own arrangements to travel to Wilmington, Delaware to attend the Job Fair. As funds permit, the Job Fair plans to reimburse reasonable, documented student travel expenses. If sufficient funds are not available to cover all expenses, students will be reimbursed on a percentage basis.

The Job Fair differs from many other job fairs in that students must be invited to attend rather than simply registering and attending. In return, invited students receive considerably more individualized attention than is possible at most larger job fairs.

To submit an application for an invitation to the Job Fair, please register and upload the required documents (resume, personal statement, and undergraduate and law school transcripts) to the Job Fair's Symplicity recruiting site: https://law-dmpd-csm.symplicity.com/students, by 11:59 p.m. on Wednesday, May 28, 2014. Please direct any questions about the Job Fair or the application process to the Job Fair Administrator at dmjf@dsba.org or (302) 651-3246. We look forward to your participation!

Very truly yours,

_The Delaware Minority Job Fair Committee_
