Content Description

This collection consists of group photos of Duke Law classes and of alumni. The alumni pictures consist of both portraits and candid photos. The photos were donated to the Duke Law's Goodson Library by other law school departments. The class photo collection is incomplete. Some class photos were rolled up before their donation to the library. It was not possible to flatten these. They are stored in tubes labeled with the class year. The oldest class photo in the collection is of the law school faculty and students from the 1920's. It was used to illustrate Robert F. Durden's article "The Rebuilding of Duke University's School of Law, 1925-1947," in The North Carolina Historical Review, Vol. 66, Nos. 3 & 4, 1989.
