Content Description

The collection was created by both professional and amateur photographers. Some photographs were taken for use in law school publications such as the annual bulletin, while many were taken to document law school staff and events. The photographs were donated by law school departments including Alumni & Development, Communications, Dean's Office, Law Library, and Student Affairs. The photographs are organized primarily by approximate date taken, however photographs of buildings and architecture are in the Buildings series. The majority of the photographs lack any documentation and the identity of the subjects and the exact date taken are unknown.
