

DUKE LAW

Targeted Course Selection and Career Planning:

A series of focused advising sessions offered by the Career Center and the Office of Student Affairs

PRACTICE professionalism

Join us for a three-part series that focuses on building academic and professional experiences during law school to support careers in different practice areas. Coffee and donuts will be provided.

Academic and career planning for:

Government/Public Interest

Tuesday, March 22, 10:00 a.m., Room 4047
Featuring Assistant Dean for Public Interest
Kim Bart and Professor Andrew Foster

Litigation

Tuesday, March 29, 10:00 a.m., Room 4047
Featuring Professor Donald Beskind

Corporate/Transactional Law

Friday, April 1, 10:00 a.m., Room 4045
Featuring Professor Jim Cox

Two course-selection panels will also be presented:

ENGAGE intellectually

Faculty Course Selection Advice Panel

Tuesday, March 15, 12:15 p.m., Room 3041

Advice from Professors Laura Griffin, James Boyle and Diane Dimond about how to choose courses. Lunch will be served.

Student Course Selection Advice Panel

Monday, March 21, 4:30 PM, Room 3043

Advice from upper-level students and the Office of Student Affairs about how to choose courses. Refreshments will be served.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Affairs at student\_affairs@law.duke.edu or the Career Center at careercenter@law.duke.edu.

DUKE LAW